

KC ROBERTS & THE LIVE REVOLUTION

KCLR GO WEST 2015 TOUR: FROM THE NORTH COME CANADA'S FUNK LIONS

Based in Toronto, 8-piece funk fusion explosion KC Roberts & The Live Revolution (KCLR) has drawn comparisons to The Red Hot Chili Peppers, Jamiroquai, Prince, The Roots and Janelle Monae. The band has shared the stage at festivals and clubs across Canada with major international artists such as Lettuce, Lee Fields, Five Alarm Funk, Naturally 7, DJ Q-Bert, Z-Trip, and Blue King Brown.

Now, after years of carefully crafting their sound and building an extraordinarily passionate and loyal fan base in Central Canada, they're ready to take their infectious, propulsive and inspiring live show on the road with their KCLR Go West 2015 Tour – 15 shows in 19 days from Edmonton to Los Angeles. Along the way, they'll be playing with some of the hottest independent funk, soul, Afro-Latin, R&B and reggae bands & DJs in North America such as Boogaloo Assassins, The Boom Booms, DJ Day, Freak Motif, The Inciters, Star Captains, Tasman Jude and many more.

KCLR is touring in support of their fifth full-length album. From The North was recorded live off the floor at the famous Revolution Studios, and its 16 cuts will be released in two volumes. Later this year, KCLR will be putting out their first live album, the eponymous Live @ 3030 which was recorded in June 2015 in Toronto, as well as a KCLR Go West tour documentary.

The Revolution is coming, and it'll make you feel real good.
